

Horse riding - The quiet local roads also make the area ideal for riding. If you want to bring your own horse, we can provide grazing and stabling. Or visit Barend riding school (2 miles).

Watersports – Sailing, Kayaking, Windsurfing and outdoor pursuits at Galloway Sailing Centre on Loch Ken (15 miles). www.lochken.co.uk

Yachting – Kippford and Rockcliffe are two picturesque former fishing villages on the River Urr. Kippford has a bustling yachting marina, atmospheric quayside pub 'The Anchor' and scenic seaside walks.

How to find us

From DUMFRIES take the A710 coastal road signposted NEW ABBEY for approx 18 miles. One mile west of CAULKERBUSH turn right up a small lane. CLIFTON FARM is about 500 yards off the main road on the right.

For further details, availability and booking please contact: Mrs. Anne Bell
Clifton Farm, Southwick, Dumfries DG2 8AR.
Tel: 01387 780206 Fax: 01387 780510
Email: anne@bellcliftonfarm.co.uk
Website: www.bellcliftonfarm.co.uk

Why not stay in a secluded cabin on a family run farm where you can re-learn the freedom of country life? The perfect get-away for those seeking a return to the great outdoors with a myriad of activities on the doorstep. From mountain biking on competition standard forest trails, to beach combing, bird watching and historical discoveries there's a host of activities for all the family. Whatever you want from your holiday, an adventure or a rest, you can find it at Oakwood Lodge – the choice is yours.

Stunning views across the Solway Firth to the Lake District

Oakwood Lodge

SELF CATERING LOG CABIN

- American log home built from solid pine logs to a high quality finish and unusual hexagonal design.
- Single cabin in a unique, secluded woodland setting, enjoying uninterrupted views across the Solway Firth to the Lake District
- Part of a working beef and sheep farm.
- Diverse activities and attractions in the immediate vicinity.
- Enjoy a holiday in what is often called the Riviera of Scotland.
- Ideal for holidays all year round.

Oakwood Lodge Clifton Farm

*A luxury
American log cabin in the heart of the Galloway countryside.*

Beautiful but overlooked,
Dumfries and Galloway is a forgotten corner of Scotland offering stunning scenery, a slower pace of life and welcoming locals. And its all less than one hour from the M74 at Gretna Green.

Accommodation

The log cabin is spacious and unique. The kitchen has an electric oven and hob, dishwasher, microwave, fridge freezer and a dining table for 6. There is a separate utility room with washing machine, tumble drier and sink, with plenty of space for boots, wet coats, golf bags etc.

The great room has a commanding view, comfortable sofas, digital TV, DVD Player, books and radio with stereo CD. Patio doors lead outside onto a veranda with seats to relax on and a teak table & chairs for your sunny breakfast. The lodge has a private garden with barbecue facilities.

The master bedroom has a king sized bed and an en-suite shower room.

There are two further twin bedded rooms and a large bathroom.

All rooms are tastefully appointed and characterful.

The log cabin is itself very warm and cosy with central heating available.

Non-smokers only.

Dogs by prior arrangement only due to sheep and other farm animals.

Free range eggs, asparagus, strawberries and new potatoes are available from the farm when in season.

Galloway Cattle on the hill

Local Activities

Walking on lovely coastal walks nearby, on the farm and in the forest. See the rich variety of wildlife here; bluebells in spring and heather clad hills in autumn.

Rock Climbing on the farm's Clifton Crag including over 50 recognised routes for experienced climbers.

Tennis at the local grass courts (2 miles).

Golf locally at Southerness Championship course, Colvend 18 holes, Kippford 9 holes, Solway Links 9 and 18 holes (free club hire for lodge guests).

Beaches – there is a fabulous sandy beach at Sandyhills (1 mile) ideal for families with small children due to the shallow paddling. Other secluded beaches nearby.

Bird watching at the RSPB reserve at Mersehead (2 miles) including 20,000 geese from Iceland in the winter. The farm also has a rich variety of birdlife for you to enjoy.

Fishing - the area is well known for its excellent river and loch fishing.

Cycling along a network of quiet local side roads. There is a lockable bike shed available.

Sevenstanes Mountain Biking taking in the nearby Dalbeattie Forest including a recently opened and specially constructed 20km series of 'single track' trails, and Mabie Forest Trails . www.forestry.gov.uk/sevenstanes.

